Grant Proposal

2023-2024 School Year

The Lumpkin County Education Foundation (LCEP) is a private, non-profit charitable organization dedicated to enriching our children's public school educational opportunities.

LCEP provides grants on an annual basis for broad-based enrichment projects, activities, or trips (referred to here as "projects").

For the 2023-2024 school year, the Foundation anticipates approximately $10,000.00 to disburse for grants. Notice of grant awards will be announced via email in mid-September.

Projects may be class-based, interdisciplinary, or departmental in scope.

A grant request may be for up to $2,500.
